

THE DAILY STAR

NEWS FROM POINTS AROUND

COVINGTON.

The Marshall's office is to have a microphone.

The Lewisburg Building Association elected officers last night.

The next thing to a "coon" trial in a Squire's office to attract a crowd is a basketball game.

There will be a microphone concert at the Sixth Street Engine-house to-night, given by Affie's Band. Admission free.

Colonel J. C. Cochran has resigned his position as Deputy U. S. Marshal in this District, and is succeeded by his son, Mr. S. P. Cochran.

The greenhouse of the Glass Works, which has been closed for some time, is again in operation, and there is consequent gladness among the employees.

The nuptials of Miss Mary Holmes, daughter of Mr. Daniel Holmes, and Mr. Charles Mitchell, of Cincinnati, are announced to take place in the near future.

Professor W. H. Jones, a former resident of this city, died suddenly yesterday with heart-disease in Dayton, O. His remains will be brought to this city for interment.

The benefit concert tendered to Miss Marie Oster, the charming young cantatrice of this city, by Madam Julia Rive and pupils at College Hall, is an event that is pleasantly anticipated by the public.

Mrs. Hannah Lambert died at her residence in Painesburg yesterday at 12 o'clock. Deceased was the wife of the late Patrick Lambert, and mother of Richard Lambert, deceased. She was sixty-five years of age.

"Squire" W. P. McLaughlin calls the man a liar and a scoundrel who says he is a candidate for the Legislature in the First District. The only humor in political circles here is the "Squire" aspires to be Congress in 1922.

The funeral of Dr. Anton Bucher, a nephew of City Treasurer Adams, recently arrived from Germany, and who died in Cincinnati night before last, took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of Treasurer Adams on Twelfth street.

Morris Welsh, an ex-manipulator of the essence of snuff, called on a lady friend Sunday night, and his unusual flow of eloquence caused her to faint and to say, "My dear, I haven't you been drinking?" "No," replied Morris, "I have been laid out on my back for an hour, and the solemnity of the situation caused me to show my conversational powers to the lady."

The political pot begins to boil for legislative honors. In the First District it is gently whispered that Raymond C. Gray, Duke Corbin, Col. Thomas Morrissey and other distinguished Democrats aspire to the insignificant position. In the Second District we hear the names of Fatty Casey, Henry Donahue, Dr. Ayerick, M. J. Shline, John S. Stevenson, Billy Brown, Sam. Coffin and others are mentioned for the position.

Mollie Winger, a young lady from Cincinnati, who claims that a young man named Snyder led her from a life of virtue, came to Covington yesterday, accompanied by her sister, and threatened to kill Snyder on sight. They were arrested by Constable (Sullivan), and arranged by Squire McLaughlin to be held in jail until Snyder could be located and fined $25. The woman attempted to shoot with a loaded hair oil and powder.

REPORT.
Mr. Thomas G. Higgins, who owns a big silver mine claim in Colorado, led for that State last evening to Covington and there it was reported that he had been killed by a woman named Snyder.

Judge McKibben yesterday morning paid the reward offered by the county for the capture of Kline, to Officer Eiling, of Cincinnati.

The City of Newport brought suit in the Chancery court this morning against W. S. and J. A. Goulding for back taxes amounting to $200.

Officer Dug. Martin is confined to his home from a severe wound in the left leg, that he received about three weeks ago while in pursuit of a criminal.

Jacob Obernauer, the would-be suicide, although anxious to die, was still alive at 12 o'clock. The family are very reticent in giving any information, and will not allow any one but the physician to see him.

Joe Dagen, an inmate of the Jail, sealed the twelve-foot fence that surrounds that institution, and escaped some time ago. The morning he was found stowed away in a grain bin at the Finchtown Distillery.

The Feast of the Annunciation is being observed as a holiday among our Catholic elements. At the Church of the Immaculate Conception the Blessed Virgin altar is tastefully decorated with lighted tapers, flowers and evergreens.

The alarm from box 7 shortly after 12 yesterday was caused by a fire breaking out in the residence of Mr. Baker, on Washington street. The fire was quickly extinguished, and the family confined to one room, which was badly damaged.

Wm. Wise, alias Hemmingway, who was convicted of horse stealing at the Alexandria Criminal Court, and Albert Reed, who was convicted of grand larceny, were brought to the New Jail this morning. Tomorrow they will be taken to Frankfort, the former for five years and Reed for one year.

HOME CITY.
What has become of the much talked of new depot?

Mr. E. Richardson expects to start west in a few days to look after his many acres.

We haven't space for a list of the bright boys that have arrived at school, but a cessation will be necessary unless they wish us to establish a "birth column."

"Wide Awake" must write on one side of the paper only and send his name. It is necessary to know from whom items come in order to weigh their importance.

"Toad," the old war-horse of Dr. McKibben, played his owner a trick a few nights ago. He was called in to call on a patient in the city, and he was walking, and home City, and not having secured his animal with proper care, had the pleasure of walking home and finding the veteran at his stable door.

People are wide awake, and are looking out for houses. We saw several to-day for houses. There are very few, if any, to rent. We do not see why there is not more rental invested here in this line. Houses rent very high, and would pay a big interest on money so invested.

RICHMOND, O.
N. P. Westcott, one of Richmond's oldest citizens, is contemplating building a brick hotel this spring.

Sandford Rosette and Cornelius Irwin left last night for Louisville, Col. Mrs. Geo. May, of Marion, has been visiting here. Mrs. Holland and Mrs. Woods, during the past week.

A walking match will take place on the Union County Fair Grounds at Marysville, Ohio, March 27th. Distance to be walked, twenty miles. A purse of $10 will be given to the best walker, and $5 to the second best.

The semi-monthly temperance meeting was held in the M. P. Church Sunday evening, March 23d, 1919. The meeting was opened by singing by the choir. Prayer and reading of the Scripture by Rev. Webb-ster. Singing by the choir. Speeches were made by John Landon, Henry Wright, W. F. Collier, Rev. T. B. Graham, Geo. Hamilton, Mr. Robinson and others, interspersed with songs by the choir. A citizens' meeting was called, to be held in the same church Monday evening.

DAYTON, KY.
Work is being rapidly pushed on the new Baptist Church.

Two dwelling houses are being erected near the school-house, and George Anderson will shortly build on Adams street. If we had a street railroad to Dayton building would boom this spring.

Miss Kate Whitney, the only daughter of the late Captain Robert Whitney, was united in marriage yesterday to Mr. Frank Langdon, of Pleasant Ridge, Ohio. The ceremony took place at the residence of Mr. Washington Kidwell, in this city, where the bride has resided for some time.

Miss Whitney has been ill for a long time, and there is serious doubt of her health ever returning. During the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Dr. C. G. Skiffman, of the Baptist Church, the bride rested in a reclining chair, being too ill to stand.

HAMILTON.
A. Winters, of Cincinnati, is at the Phillips House.

The Gymnasium received seven new members last week.

Job Owens is still confined to the house, though slowly improving.

D. M. Sheely, of Fairfield Township, is a candidate for Township Treasurer.

Miss Annie Crockett is in Cincinnati, the guest of her friend, Miss Carrie Buchholz.

Miss Lida Buckingham, of Cincinnati, formerly of this city, was in the city yesterday.

The Mayor yesterday invited one of the noisiest and loudest of soap to his sign and department.

The Hamilton Infanter's new knapsacks have arrived and will be lettered and numbered this week.

In the case of L. F. Hand against James H. Sulphin, a judgment of $129.29 was rendered plaintiff.

The Hawthorne Club held a pleasant meeting last night at Dr. Ed. Padack's, of West Third street.

Mrs. Josie Milliken leaves for Eaton Thursday to visit her friend, Miss Cora Van Aural, of that place.

Miss Lida Buckingham, Hamilton's sweet singer, now in Cincinnati, goes to New Richmond, Tenn., soon.

George Dilg, the liveryman, lost a gold sleeve button set in pearls on last Sunday. A reward will be paid for its return.

The Board of County Commissioners yesterday put the day examining the Hamilton jail and bridges in Oxford Township.

J. R. McKee, brother of Postmaster McKee, and manager of the Daily Independent, Richmond, Ind., is in the city on a visit.

In the case of Mary C. Chadwick against J. R. Chadwick, a decree of divorce was granted, and the custody of the child given plaintiff.

Mr. Ase Shuler and his brother Mandus departed for Kansas last evening in search of a farm to till. Mr. A. Shuler will remain in a few days.

In the case of W. H. McKinstry against P. B. McKinstry, the administrator of Wm. McKinstry, was ordered to pay over $1500 remaining in his hands.

The members of the Hamilton Assembly are requested to meet Friday evening at the office of the President, James E. Campbell. A full attendance is desired.

The funeral of James McCormick, who died yesterday, will take place tomorrow at 2 o'clock, from the residence of his mother, Mrs. Charles Street, Services at the M. E. Church.

An effort is being made to persuade Thos. Slade, one of Butler County's best men, to consent to allow his name to be used on the Democratic ticket as a candidate for County Commissioner.

Traveling men will be pleased to learn that the Union Hotel, for many years employed in the notion business, has permanently located at the St. James Hotel in the capacity of clerk.

Next Thursday night a test will be made of the candle-power of the gas now consumed by the city and private consumers, resulting in the absence of the family at the test.

Henry Vandever has completed the indexing of the minutes of the City Council from the annexation of the town of Ross-ville, April 9, 1855, to January 1, 1870—a period of twenty-four years.

The residence of Andrew Lintner, in Ross-ville Township, was burglarized last Sunday during the absence of the family at church. Some old coins and considerable jewelry were taken. No clue.

Several members of Butler Lodge, No. 68, and William Lodge, No. 61, A. O. U. W., contemplated attending the banquet and reception at the Hotel Hamilton, but were unable to come off at Cincinnati this week.

Yesterday Charles Slattery, an employee on the C. & E. Road, while at work in the yard near the depot, fell in a fainting fit, and in the fall struck his head against a rail and sustained quite a severe injury. Slattery is now in the city hospital.

Mr. S. D. Adams, of Coshocton, has purchased a small farm and tract from Scott, in Oxford Township, where he will enter into the manufacture of photo-frames, brackets, etc. Mr. Adams is a man of good business ability, and can not but be successful in his new undertaking.

Last Sunday morning the house of Mr. Ridner, a few miles from Hamilton, was entered by robbers while the family were at church and relieved of everything valuable. Among the things stolen was a gold chain, and a silver watch, and about $100 in money. This is the third time Mr. Ridner's house has been entered by thieves.

The ladies of the M. E. Church have made elaborate preparations for their supper to be given this evening in the lecture-room of the church. The following well known ladies comprise the committee of Arrangements: Mrs. G. M. Fien, Mrs. M. P. Varis, Mrs. James Jackson, Mrs. Robert Snider, Mrs. John Seward, Mrs. L. Shank, Mrs. S. Warnock, Mrs. J. W. Booth, Miss Belle Hogan and Miss Mollie Colough.

Democratic City Central Committee.—The following resolutions were adopted: "First—That candidates for Mayor, City Marshal, City Solicitor and Chief of Fire Department shall pay $3 each.

"Second—That candidates for Constable shall pay $2 each.

"Third—That candidates for ward office shall pay an assessment of $1.

"Fourth—That the above assessment must be paid to the Treasurer or Committee on or before tomorrow (Wednesday). The committee will be in session at the office of S. Z. Gard, Hunter's Block, corner of Basin and Second streets.

Meat stealing is the most important business just now in the neighborhood of Slick-ville.

Leave orders for the Daily Cincinnati Star, by J. O'Connor, a Book Store, on Short street, near Broadway, and they will be promptly attended to. I. C. Montfort, agent.

The committees appointed for the centennial preparation are efficient and doing their whole duty. The people are responding liberally with their cash. A grand time is anticipated.

Charles Reynolds, who was arrested and taken to Louisville before the U. S. Court, charged with intimidating one R. J. O'Malley, a U. S. witness, was released Saturday on a bail of $500. Charlie is at home and happy.

A young man named James S. Welch, residing on Second street, in this city, shot himself in the head with a pistol last evening. The wound is fatal. Cause, despondency caused by business reverses.

The funeral of Captain O. F. Beard took place Sunday evening at 3 o'clock from his residence on Bar street. Lexington has lost another tried and brave man, a good citizen and a man of energy and enterprise. We deplore his loss.

A petition with a great many names attached has been presented to the Council asking the removal of the stock sales from Cheap Side. An opposition party has likewise asked that honorable body to continue things just as our fathers taught. We can not forebode the result. The Council has the matter under consideration, and will doubtless act according to our common interests.

The Centennial Committee of Invitation, in their report on Saturday, extend an especial invitation to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, city representatives at Washington, the Legislators of our State, together with the various Mayors of cities, their respective Councils, with all the newspapers of the State; the Superintendent of Public Schools, with all the teachers of the State, and the State officers at Frankfort, Judges and Clerks of Courts, are also invited.

FAIRMOUNT, O.
A grand concert will be given in the M. E. Church in this place next Thursday evening, March 27th, under the direction of Prof. H. J. Schomaker. Some of our best local talent in the city will take part, and we expect a great musical treat.

DAYTON, O.
The city has furnished lodging this month to 448 sleeping lodgers.

William McMahon, for abusing his family, was arrested on warrant yesterday noon by officer J. B. Moore.

J. Harry Shannon, the wonderful "boy orator," appeared at music hall last night before a small but appreciative audience. One more night.

Prof. Carpenter appeared last night at Gebhart's Opera-house to a large audience, sending them home well pleased with his wonderful exhibition of mesmerism power.

Officers Kirby, Barker and Murphy arrested John Fernding last night upon warrant sworn out by George Smith, charged with criminal intercourse with his (Smith's) wife.

The following cases were disposed of by His Honor Mayor Bates yesterday: Henry Wilson, for appropriating a shirt belonging to Charles Pandorf, $15.00 and ten days in Work-house; Charles Keller, drunk and disturbing the peace, $15.00, committed to Work-house; John J. Hendrickson, for carrying a small battery, $15.00; Wm. Joy and Martin Lewis, for disturbing the peace, were released upon payment of $5.00 each; John W. Morris, the last of the Franz robbers, was bound over in the sum of $1,500.

SPRINGFIELD, O.
The "mumps" have made a stand at the Wittenberg.

Judge Hawes will be here on Wednesday and hold court.

The Lofel wheels began on Monday to remove to their new ship.

While Wallace is engaged in battle with the Republic, W. C. Frye is making votes by a quiet canvass.

Lagonda is to be made an incorporated village, a bill to this effect being now introduced in the Legislature. It will take in all that territory between Lagonda and the city limits.

The funeral services of the late John O'Leary, held at the St. Raphael's Church on Sunday afternoon, were largely attended. A large number of sorrowing friends followed the remains to the grave.

In the Mayor's Court of Monday Wm. Burns and Thomas Ford, saloonists, pleaded guilty of violating the city ordinance and were each fined $10 and costs, and John Midlin for a drunk and disorderly was given five days in the Station-house with costs to pay.

Mrs. Mary Kiefer, mother of General J. W. Kiefer, died Sunday at her residence, 2101 Belmont street, at the age of eighty years. General Kiefer arrived from Washington on Saturday evening, and reached his mother's bedside before she breathed her last.

The preliminary examination of Adam Nicholas, charged with assault with intent to kill, which was called for hearing before Squire Hallenbeck on Saturday, resulted in a postponement, on account of the non-appearance of Nicholas, who, it is supposed, has jumped the town, thereby forfeiting $200 bail.

Matrimonial Whispers.—The following parties have been granted licenses to marry: R. C. Bell and Annie M. Swonger, Henry Fensheimer and Christine F. Swonger, Jonas Stransburg and Phoebe A. Maxon, Urban Colk and Emma H. Flood, T. B. Reiser and Mary S. Beal, James A. Wildcombe and Lillie Hathaway, William Banger and Anna R. Leitchway, John C. Parthenore and Elvira B. Wright, James Roberts and Anna L. Howard, William Elder and Anna E. Richards. Three orders not published.

A Good Housewife.
The good housewife, who she is giving her house is giving her house should be in mind that the dear inmates of her house are more precious than many houses, and that their systems need cleansing by purifying the blood, regulating the stomach and bowels to prevent and cure the diseases arising from spring malaria and miasma, and she must know that there is nothing that will do so perfectly and surely as Hop Bitters, the purest and best of medicines. See other columns.

The Courts.
COMMON PLEAS.
Alpa M. Ridings filed suit for divorce against Robert Ridings for divorce, custody of children, alimony and other relief.

Lucilla Alice Buff filed a similar suit against John D. Buff.

Judge Andrew F. Braden brought suit against the Trustees of the Cincinnati Southern Railway to recover $2,000 for damages caused by the latter allowing long lines of trains standing in front of his premises on McLean avenue between Wade and Wildest streets.

Before Judge Johnston. Wilhelm Miller against James Miller. Suit for divorce on grounds of willful absence and gross neglect. Decree granted; also $3,000 alimony.

In the case of Mary Brose against Wm. Hemrich, under the last act, in which a verdict against the defendant had been rendered, a motion for a new trial was granted.

PROBATE.
The will of Antonio Garberino was probated.

Henry H. Finch was appointed administrator of Elijah Hathaway. Personality $2,000.

POLICE.
Drunk—Barney Stanwood, James Green, Lizzie Miller, $3; Andrew Baker, 30 days.

Disorderly Conduct—Mary Keating, John Mack, continued; Arthur B. O'Connell, Charles Stone, E. F. Fougler, James Johnston, dismissed; Thomas Weeks, $30.30.

Miscellaneous—Jas. Rooney, J. M. Bosley, Erna Williams, Wm. Monahan, grand larceny, dismissed; W. Schaller, manslaughter, continued; Jos. Williams, Harry McKim, housebreaking, dismissed; William Campbell, same, committed to House of Refuge; W. C. Shannon, Jennie Gorman, petit larceny, continued; James Miles, Geo. Sears, John Sullivan, burglary, continued; Ferdinand, grand larceny, $10; Wm. Schaefer, street bawling, $50.30; Lester A. Rose, libel, continued; Eliza Orr, receiving stolen goods, dismissed; Jos. Williams, same, continued; R. P. Freisenhorn, false pretenses, $25; Jas. Johnston, carrying concealed weapons, $50.30; Richard Anson and Aaron Mills, vagrancy, $50.30; Michael Riley, same, continued; Conrad Seither, known thief, $50.30; Dennis Mulcahy, same, continued.

MU-MORROWS CALENDAR.
The cases set for to-morrow (Wednesday) are as follows:

COMMON PLEAS.
Before Judge Smith.
51.41—Charles Hughes and Leyman S. Northrup vs. Samuel Moore.
51.42—The Zoological Society vs. Theodore Thwait.

51.43—James Goehler vs. John Wagner.
51.44—James Burdall & Co. vs. The Merchants Dispatch Transportation Company.
51.45—James M. Miller vs. Jefferson Johnson and Jonathan Johnson.

Before Judge Moore.
51.46—John F. Fiedel vs. George W. Russell.
51.47—The City of Cincinnati vs. John J. Johnston.
51.48—James Mack vs. Philip Hill.
51.49—Frank A. Anson vs. Arthur Seiden.
51.50—William P. Church vs. Sam E. Himmann.

Before Judge King.
51.51—John C. King vs. John J. Conrad.
51.52—Fourth National Bank vs. Leopold Burkhart.
51.53—Matthews & Ramsey vs. Sarah E. Himmann.

Before Judge Smith.
51.54—Same vs. same.
51.55—William H. Hanks vs. Wm. H. Packer.
51.56—Henry Schmidt vs. Frank Kelly.
51.57—Catherine Shute vs. Daniel Brown and wife.

Before Judge Boone.
51.58—Edward Boehme vs. Henry Seiler et al.
51.59—Charles Holman vs. John E. Price et al.
51.60—Frank Skinner vs. John H. Krehenrich.
51.61—Anna Maria Gier vs. A. M. Miller.
51.62—Beverly B. Bower vs. May C. Jones et al.

Before Judge Longworth.
51.63—Mary E. Allen vs. Valentine R. Allen.
51.64—Benjamin C. Jones vs. Lydia A. Dietz.
51.65—The Aurora Iron Company vs. John B. Evans.
51.66—John F. Nolker vs. The City.

Before Judge Fudge.
51.67—The Globe State Company vs. Thomas Quinn & Co.
51.68—The St. Anthony Young Men's Relief Society vs. Henry Subkamp, Jr., et al.
51.69—Morris Frohman vs. Jas. Naughton.
51.70—Anna Miller vs. Peter Jacobs et al.
51.71—Helen McKel vs. The City.

Before Judge Yappe.
51.72—Hugh McMillan vs. the Globe Rolling Mill.
51.73—The St. Anthony Young Men's Relief Society vs. Henry Subkamp, Jr., et al.
51.74—Morris Frohman vs. Jas. Naughton.
51.75—Anna Miller vs. Peter Jacobs et al.
51.76—Helen McKel vs. The City.

Before Judge Harmon.
51.77—The City Fire and Marine Insurance Co. vs. Adam Gray.
51.78—Patrick Kinney vs. The Pittsburg, Cincinnati & St. Louis R. Co.
51.79—Frederick Westerman vs. The City.
51.80—Haynes & Lansing vs. Nicholas H. Stevenson.

Electric Currents.
A fire at Oswein, Iowa, destroyed several stores.

Gold has been discovered near Wichita, Kansas.

George W. Horner's wife committed suicide at Fiqua, O.

George Alexander, colored murdered his young wife at Dekalb, Ill.

Ladoree Cava, a Frenchman, committed suicide at Cheboygan, Mich.

Adam Farmer was run over by a wagon and killed at Ironton, Ohio.

Mrs. Pete McCartney pleaded guilty to counterfeiting at Springfield, Ill.

The steamer Golden Eagle sank off Kelly's Island, Lake Erie, yesterday.

E. C. Coe was arrested at Newton Falls, O., charged with carrying a small battery.

Frank Caswell, a railroad conductor, dropped dead at Turner Junction, Ind.

Wm. Vannetter's and Louis Trempe's residences were burned at Logansport, Ind.

John Kennedy, railroad watchman, was dangerously injured by cars at Ravenna, O.

Daniel Charles, a politician, shot and fatally wounded Charles Carroll at Carmi, Ill.

Three villains horribly outraged Catherine Ludwig, a washerwoman at Detroit, Mich.

E. M. Parker, of Richmond, Ind., bagged seventy-seven ducks in one day at English Lake, Ind.

Horace Manchester, a submarine diver, was caught under water at P. Indish, R. I., and killed.

Thos. K. Hayes' barn, pine horses, two mules and all his farming implements were burned near St. Omer, Shelby County, Ind.

James P. Rowland was found severely wounded in his house near Columbia, Mo., and his niece, Julia Rowland, was found dead in the same house, having committed suicide. It is a mysterious case.

Real Estate Transfers.
The following real estate transfers were made from noon yesterday to noon to-day:

Cedar Grove Land and Building Association to Benj. Van Schoeck; consideration $200.

Thomas and Auditor W. T. Capeller: A. H. Andrew to Wm. T. Young, lot No. 8, McClung's subdivision of Cleves; $4.42.

J. R. Challen to same, 21-100 acres in Harrison Township.

T. B. Reiser and Mary S. Beal, James A. Wildcombe and Lillie Hathaway, William Banger and Anna R. Leitchway, John C. Parthenore and Elvira B. Wright, James Roberts and Anna L. Howard, William Elder and Anna E. Richards. Three orders not published.

Enoch Goodenky to same. Lot No. 1, McClung's subdivision of Cleves, Miami Township; $30.00.

Samuel Balady to same, Lot No. 2, McClung's subdivision of Cleves, $3.60.

Samuel Balady to same, Lot No. 3, McClung's subdivision of Cleves, $3.60.

Same to same, Lot No. 4, same subdivision; $3.60.

Board of Public Works.
It was resolved to pay George Heidt the sum of $75 for sprinkling Freeman street in front of Lincoln Park for the season of 1878.

The Engineer was directed to prepare the necessary papers for the improvement of McCullough and Thompson streets.

The Superintendent of Lincoln Park was directed to have a new family boat built for said Park.

The bill of the American Gas Light Co. for lighting, cleaning, extinguishing, keeping in repair and supplying with gasoline 877 lamps during the month of February, amounting to $1,251.54 was approved.

Queen City Lodge.
The Queen City Lodge, No. 229, I. O. O. F., last night celebrated their twenty-fifth anniversary. A select audience gathered at the Lodge, corner of Freeman and Eighth streets, and at an early hour there was scarcely standing room to be obtained.

The programme was replete with good things and the happy life of the evening was too numerous to be recounted. The comic renditions of Mr. Alf. Burnett were received by the audience with resounding applause.

The duet, by the Misses C. and M. Porter is especially to be commended. Mr. C. V. Lewis, in his inimitable manner, brought down the house with his Irish and Dutch songs.